A video from Indore (Indore) has gone viral in which municipal corporation workers were seen leaving the weak-helpless elderly in a car on the Indore-Dewas highway on Friday. Priyanka Gandhi tweeted about this.

A video has gone viral in Indore (Indore), the cleanest city in the country, in which municipal corporation workers were seen leaving weak and destitute elderly people on the Indore-Dewas highway in cars on Friday. In the video, some employees of the corporation, an elderly weak woman and a male elderly man are seen sitting down from the car. A few more elderly people and their belongings were seen in the car. The video is said to be in the vicinity of Shipra. Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi tweeted about the incident.

While sharing the video of the incident, Priyanka wrote that the incident in Indore, Madhya Pradesh is a disgrace to humanity. The government and the administration should apologize to these poor people and take action against the petty employees who have implemented this order, not against those who have given high orders.

Let us know that after taking notice of the video, the Chief Minister with immediate effect directed to suspend Pratap Solanki, Deputy Commissioner of the Municipal Corporation, who has joined the Urban Development Department of Bhopal. The two municipal employees present at the time of the Indore incident have been directed to be sacked. In his instructions, CM Shivraj Singh Chouhan said that inhumane treatment of elders could not be tolerated at any cost. Chief Minister Shri Shivraj Singh Chouhan has directed Collector Indore to take proper care of the elderly.
